

A “412 (i) Fully Insured Defined Benefit Plan” is another variation of the defined benefit plan. This type of defined benefit plan is subject to different funding requirements, which may mean a higher required contribution level for the same benefit as a traditional defined benefit plan. The plan funding is required to be in insurance company life and annuity products with set guarantees. The insurance company products ultimately guarantee the plan benefits.